International Association of

Auto Theft
Investigators

United Kingdom Branch

Corporate Membership

The IAATI UK Branch has taken the decision to offer an Annual Corporate Membership. The intention is to offer commercial entities working to fight vehicle crime the opportunity to benefit from our collective knowledge, from our network of contacts around the world, and from our friendly, collaborative approach.

IAATI UK is part of the Global entity, the International Association of Auto Theft Investigators (IAATI) which was formed in 1952 and has approximately 2,000 members

- Representing 58 countries
- Representatives of law enforcement agencies
- Vehicle theft investigation
- Prevention
- Education.

IAATI UK Goals

Our most effective weapon to combat the crime of vehicle and equipment theft is cooperation. IAATI has actively pursued this by providing its members with an unsurpassed array of experience, training and resources in areas such as technical developments, trends, information, and investigative assistance through its networking capabilities.

Corporate Membership Package Benefits

Joining the International Association of Auto Theft Investigators (IAATI) UK branch could offer several benefits:

1. Networking Opportunities:

IAATI provides a platform for professionals in the field of auto theft investigation to connect and exchange information. Joining the UK branch could facilitate networking with investigators from different countries, including the UK and Europe providing opportunities to share best practices, techniques, and insights into auto theft investigation.

2. Access to Resources:

Membership in IAATI typically grants access to a range of resources such as publications, research papers, training materials, and conferences. These resources can help you stay updated on the latest trends, technologies, and methodologies in auto theft investigation.

A Partnership Approach to Vehicle Crime

Through Theft Prevention, Detection, Investigation, Training and Education

3. Training and Professional Development:

IAATI often organises training sessions, workshops, and conferences covering various aspects of auto theft investigation, including vehicle identification, fraud detection, forensic techniques, and legal issues. Membership may provide discounted or free access to these training opportunities, enhancing your skills and knowledge.

4. Collaborative Investigations:

Through IAATI networking, you can collaborate on cross-border investigations and share intelligence on organised auto theft rings that may operate across international boundaries. This collaborative approach can be particularly beneficial for you when working in regions where auto theft is a transnational crime.

5. Recognition and Credibility:

Being a member of a reputable professional association like IAATI can enhance your credibility within your field and among law enforcement agencies, insurers, and other stakeholders involved in auto theft prevention, detection and investigation.

6. Policy Advocacy:

IAATI often engage in advocacy efforts to influence policies related to auto theft prevention, law enforcement practices, and regulatory frameworks. By joining the association, investigators can contribute to these advocacy efforts and have a voice in shaping policies that impact their work.

Overall, joining the IAATI UK branch can provide valuable opportunities for networking, learning, collaboration, and professional development, which can ultimately enhance the effectiveness and success of auto theft investigations for you and your team.

The cost of the corporate membership package is £950 annually, to include:
